Electoral eligibility is granted to those enrolled in the doctoral cycle as of the date of issuance of the order calling the election.

Without prejudice to the eligibility of all eligible voters, any nominations may be submitted to the Department, exclusively by e-mail, at dip.salutementalefisica@unicampania.it by noon on February 25, 2026, through its institutional e-mail (nome.cognome@unicampania.it), with a valid identification document attached. To ascertain that the application has been submitted, within the above deadlines, the date of sending the e-mail shall be deemed to be the date of submission.

The forms to be used are attached (annex no.1) to this measure.

The individual declaration of candidacy must indicate the candidate's first name, last name, date, and place of birth, and role and must necessarily be signed at the bottom.

Lists of those eligible to vote and to stand for election will be prepared by the Office in charge of the election, referred to in Article 2 above, and will be published promptly on the Department's website.

Against any errors and omissions, eligible voters excluded from the list may make a report to the Secretariat of the Department of Mental and Physical Health and Preventive Medicine by e-mail, at dip.salutementalefisica@unicampania.it, within three working days from the date of publication. Any changes should be made within five days of the report.

Only those on the lists of eligible voters will be eligible to vote.

Art. 6 - Voting

The online voting service allows voters to cast their votes electronically. Each voter will be provided with credentials to access the electronic voting system, along with instructions on how to cast a vote.

To vote, the voter must log in to a special virtual polling station on the Microsoft Teams platform, where he or she is identified by showing a valid ID and enabled to vote; then the voter must log in to the University's e-voting platform using the credentials received by email in the days leading up to the election.

For further details regarding the election procedure, please refer to the University web at the link: <https://www.unicampania.it/index.php/elezioni-online>.

The vote is valid if at least 3 percent of those eligible to vote have taken part, according to Article 1 paragraph 7 of the Election Regulations.

In the event of an equal number of preference votes, the candidate with greater seniority prevails. Each voter, to exercise his or her right to vote, must carry valid identification and may express only one preference.

Art. 7 - Proclamation and appointment

The Director of the Department shall proceed to proclaim those elected after verifying the regularity of the election operations by the relevant office.

Within ten days after the proclamation of those elected, taking into account also any appeals, the Director of the Department shall appoint those elected by special order.

The elective component of doctoral students shall serve for the duration of the cycle and in any case, not beyond the attainment of the doctoral degree

Art. 8- Referral rules

For matters not provided for in this measure, please refer to the current University Electoral Regulations.
